

Rhode Island Wild Plant Society Press Release

For Immediate Release

Contact: Mary Lou Upham – (401) 789-7497 or office@riwps.org

RI WILD PLANT SOCIETY'S

SPRING PLANT SALE

Saturday, JUNE 6, 2009

9:00 am – noon, rain or shine

at the URI Greenhouses, Flagg Road, Kingston

Come to the "Best Native Plant Sale in Rhode Island" on June 6. Jumpstart your garden by purchasing quality native plants to create or enhance a natural, sustainable landscape. Whether you are interested in a perennial or woodland garden, a water garden, or a patio garden, there will be something for you. Whether you have sun or shade, moist or dry conditions, there will be something for you. Plants for sale will include wildflowers, annuals, perennials, native shrubs, pond plants and much more.

A silent auction for rare and collectible plants will be featured at 10:30 am.

South County is a haven for dedicated gardeners. Join us for this special plant sale and spread the message to the far corners of Rhode Island and beyond that natives are beautiful – and responsible.

For more information, contact the Rhode Island Wild Plant Society office at (401) 789-7497, or visit the website at www.riwps.org, or e-mail us at office@riwps.org.

Pictures are available upon request.